And while for the former in every paign upon a Northern field exclusively, and tes are chiefly interested. We need not dwell on this point any further than to say that the ablican platform has but one plank. During he whole of the canvass thus far they have rung their changes upon but one note, "Kansas and slavery." If every other plank originally adopted was to be thrown overboard, this one remaining is sufficient to float the party-broad enough and long enough to hold them all. And from all the speeches, resolutions, sermons, pamphlets of the oracles of this party, but one thing can be

They justify it on the ground that the North has the numerical majority. And since the design of the party is interference with the affairs of individual States, and those Southern, the South is necessarily and effectually excluded from enjoying the Democratic principle that the majority shall govern, unless willing to become a party to a warfare upon itself and its own institutions and property, which, right or wrong, no others have the right to interfere with. This sectional party proclaims that it will have principle that the North has the power and will

No one can have noticed the speeches of the past two months, and the columns of bave seen one thing avowed with remarkable unanimity—that when they shall have the PresiD. A. The election of Mr. Fremont is but a stepping-stone in progress. The leaders declare that they intend yet morethat Mr. Fremont and his administration are to be but agents, instruments, through whom they design to carry on a more extended scheme of aggression upon the South. There can be but one opinion upon this point. Mr. Fremont will not be allowed to stand still. He will not behls own master. The managers of his administration will be the men who have so disastrously succeeded in banding the North together for a uthern crusade. Senator Hale declares that Fremont's election will be a step in the direction of general emancipation. Kansas and the Territories are but a small part of the plan of this cam-

We see that the City Council have passed resolutions empowering the Chief of Police to appoint an additional police force to preserve order upon the day of election. This move of the K. N. rules of Louisville was no doubt prompted by the knowledge that a committee of the Democratic party had requested a conference from a like number of gentlemen of the K. N. party, for the purpose of devising some measures to protect the right of suffrage in the city. This is the very last thing our City Fathers desire to see, done, and bence they have forestalled the action of the committee by empowering their partisan Chief of Police to appoint a police to preserve order on the day of election. Every man, with two ideas, knows, that the City Conneil expect him to appoint Know Nothing bruisers and bullies—men who, instead of protecting the right of suffrage by the Know Nothing bruisers and bullies—men who, instead of protecting the right of suffrage by the Know Nothing bruisers and bullies—men who, instead of protecting the right of suffrage would, in fact, constitute the nucleus of a mob to violate it.

We suppose this action of the Conneil will be offered as an excuse by the Know Nothings to prevent any other arrangements to secure a passodul election. It was certainly taken by the Gouncil with that view. We shall wait, boweyer, and see.

LOUISVILLE TIMES.

SATURDAY :::: OCTOBER 18, 1856 Gov. Willard, Of Indiana, will address the Democracy of Louisville TO-NIGHT, from the balcony of the Galt House. This announcement, we are sure.

THANKSGIVING DAY .- The Governor of Maine has joined with the Governors of Maryland and Missouri in designating the 20th of November as thanksgiving day.

will carry the whole city to hear him.

EXTREMES WILL MEET.—Among the passengers on the train to St. Louis on Monday night were two men of very unequal proportions—the weight of one was over four hundred pounds and of the other less than seventy pounds. They were on their way to the great fair at St. Louis.

MELANCHOLY AFFAIR .- At the Fillmore ball in Washington, Daviess connty, Ind., on Friday night, a Mr. Merchant, of Petersburg, fell from the window in the second story, and was so seriously injured as to cause his death the next morning. It is supposed that he had gone to sleep while seated at the window.

During the excitement at the Mechanics' Fair last night, a frightened individual jumped through the head-band of a bed-stead. It was less than 2,000 over Hoffman, Black Republiso highly polished that he took it for a window. We understand that during the panic

IJMr. Joseph Darr, an attachee of the Cincin nati Enquirer was in the city yesterday. He was attending the Agricultural Fair, Mechanics' Institute, &c., and seeing the sights generally. He thinks Louisville "pretty much of a place."

A panic was created at the Institute last night by the sinking of the front gallery about VER'S CAMEER AND SALT REEUM SYRUP AND Co- a foot, and the severing of the gas pipe, which put out all the light. Of course, the ladies were very much alarmed. We are happy to state, however, that no one was hurt. The defect will be remedied to-day, and any Hen. Thos. F. Marshall, is to speak in this city to-night.

THEATRE.—The benefit of Mrs. Farran last night was the most brilliant affair of the season. The house wes literally jammed-many were elled to leave, being unable to get in. It was a gala night. Mrs. F. was enthusiastically applaused in both pieces. Her recitation of "E take, sir," said a gentleman to us the other day, Pluribus Unum" created the wildest enthusiasm their handkerchiefs.

The song by Mrs. Bernard went off in fine stple—she was called out three times. To-night Mrs. Farran appears in "Mary Tudor.11 Already many seats have been engaged.

GRAND LODGE OF KENTUCKY .- The Grand odge of Masons for Kentucky, in session at Lexington have elected T. N. Wise Grand Master of the State of Kentucky for the ensuing twelve months; P. Swigert Deputy Grand Master; Robert Moris Senior Warden and H. T. Wilson, Junior Warden of the Grand Lodge of Masons for the State of Kentncky.

The members of the Third street M. E. Church South (Sehon Chapel,) in this city, with almost entire unanimity, have withdrawn from the ecclesiastical jurisdiction of the Louisville Conference, on account of the rule requiring an absolute removal of the preacher at the end of very two years, and elected themselves into an dependent congregation.

We understand that the Chuch has succeeded securing the services of the Rev. G. W. Smiley (their former pastor) for a term of five years, and that he has already entered upon his duties as paster of the congregation.

DIDN'T SHOOT .- The Know Nothings of Lexington on, Thursday afternoon, brought out the cannon, harnessed up eight white horses, bought a keg of powder, and prepared to celebrate their victory in Pennsylvania. While marching sages lengthened—the musicians stopped—the horses refused to "gh-lang." All was still as death, not a word was spoken. There they fit to attend. stood for 20 minutes 'like bumps on a tree." Finally they unlimbered, sent the horses to the stable, left the cannon in the street and dispersed one at a time. "Wait for the wagon" next time Fillmourners. The "good time" is coming for you-after the millenium.

THE NATIONAL HOTEL.—The past week has been one of gayety. The Mechanics' Fair, Theatre, Soirces, Hops, &c., have been the order of amuse ments. The series of "Hops" given at the National Hotel were the center of attraction and enjoyment. Thursday night last we were present at the Ball given by the proprietor of the National. It was one of the most delightful gatherings we ever had the pleasure of participating in. It was in the good old style of genline hospitality that the gnests were welcomed and entertained and from first to last every incident was fraught with unalloyed pleasure and enjoyment.

At ten o'clock, the floor was filled with a merry troop, and commenced the festivities of the night, which were kept up joyously until the stetweenThirteenthand Fourteenth. merry troop, and commenced the festivities of 'wee small hours."

All was bright and gayety. Crowds of elegantly dressed ladies leaned on the arms of gentlemen attired in all the glory of fasionable tailordom. Light feet kept time to the swelling music; sylph-like forms circled round to Strauss' wild waltres, or to Strakosch's inspiring polkas and schottisches. A magnificent supper was set at midnight of which the whole company partook, passing thereat a mirthful hour, with toast sentiment and speech. The supper was most artistically arranged. It was gotten up by Mr. Place's head-cook, Monsieur A. Schelthelm.

I would call the attention of my Iriends and the public in general to the above letter, handed to me by Messrs. W. R. & Co., extensive liquor merchants. It is well known by the Cincinnati public that several of my Safes, of different sizes, have stood, of late, every severe tests. Among others, I would refer to the fire at Mr. Scovill's druggist, that of Messrs. Davie & Co., Iron sucremants and brunders: that of Mr. Stullito, soap and cendle factor; that of Messrs. Greaud & Sargan, liquor and wine merchants. The Safes all come out victorious, although surrounded by the most combustable maternal. Having acquired all the late suprovements, I dare say that my Sales are inferior to none made this side the mountains. As to the outer appearance, I combine nearness with durability. In caling the attention of dealers in our line in this market, we would state that during the last six months our attention has been directed to getting up a large number of new Stove and Grate Patterns, which, added to our already large stock, gives us oue of the most extensive and diversified assortiuents in the western market. Among the number, we would refer to our "Ashland Kentuckian" (Cook Stove, (three sizes out.) These Stoves have great weight of metal, highly finished and elegant in appearance. They combine all the modern improvements that practical experience has developed.

We would invite dealers to call and examine, for themselves, and we think in quality, price, &c., they can be suited. Having enlarged our manufacting department, we can promptly meet all demands.
